

Stacey H Thomas, BSN, RNC-OB

2040 10th St Blvd NW • Hickory, NC 28601 • (828) 855-4082 •

stacey@icofjax.com

Professional Experience

Risk Management

- Risk Analyst for community hospital
- Responsible for organizing and facilitating Intense Analysis/Root Cause Analysis investigations
- Manage day to day activity of computer based hospital incident investigation program
- Run monthly, quarterly, and annual statistical reports for all hospital units

Clinical

- 12 years labor & delivery experience, Level 3 High Risk and Level 1& 2 LDRP/Mother-Baby
- Relief charge nurse/team leader
- Member of unit based Shared Governance Committee

Education

- Preceptor for new hospital staff and community nursing students
- Mentor for staff in evaluating fetal tracings
- Educate parents/family on newborn care
- Instructed hospital based childbirth education series
- Instructed classes on use of OB Trace Vue

Case Management

- Performed telephonic health assessments of high risk pregnancy population
- Identified at-risk patients and enrolled in case management services
- Coordinated services for at-risk patients and provided follow up as needed
- Responsible for caseload of approximately 100-175 patients

Employment History

Risk Analyst, CVMC, Hickory, NC (May 2012-Present)

Staff RN LDRP, CVMC, Hickory, NC (May 2010 – May 2012)

Staff RN LDRP, St Luke's Hospital, Jacksonville, FL (2008-April 2010)

Childbirth Educator, Baptist Health, Jacksonville, FL (2007-2008)

Staff RN Labor & Delivery, Baptist Downtown, Jacksonville, FL (2006-2008)

Nurse Case Manager, Matria Healthcare, INC, Marietta, Ga (2006)

Assistant Nurse Manager LDRP, Baptist South, Jacksonville, FL (2005)

Staff RN Labor & Delivery, Baptist Downtown, Jacksonville, FL (2000-2005)

Staff RN Women's Surgery, Baptist Downtown, Jacksonville, FL (1999-2000)

Education

B.S. in Nursing, Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, NC (1997)

Certifications

NRP, ACLS, NCC

Professional Organizations

AWHONN, Sigma Theta Tau, NC ASHRM